

HEAVY FIGHTING IN PROGRESS AT BOTH ENDS OF LINE

Hurry for Another Week. LONDON, September 26. The American Relief Committee has completed its week's work and will continue its activities without a diminution of staff and in its present quarters for at least another week, on account of the increase in the number of American refugees, including 7,000 from the Continental ports. H. C. Hoover, chairman of the American relief committee, reports that during the past seven days 12,000 refugees have arrived in London from the Continent. Of these, 7,000 were assisted financially. The departures for the week, including day-pass sailings, for American ports total 8,000. The American Relief Committee has been in America since the war began 55,000 persons. Of this number, 8,265 have received financial assistance.

LONDON, September 26.—James T. Macey, of Denver, Col., whose invalid life culminated in suicide in London August 8, after being driven out of an English hospital by the outbreak of hostilities, was today found dead in a room at the Lynton, where he had been held as a suspect. Mr. Macey was arrested after his arrival in England from America in search of his mother-in-law and daughter, supposed to be stranded in Germany. He was detained along with three other Americans until his citizenship was proved, and he had explained the object of his trip.

VALDES, ALASKA, September 26.—A wireless message received by the steamer Alameda, and reported here today, indicates that all the officers and crew of seventy-two men and others who were aboard the United States revenue cutter Tahoma, wrecked near Kiska Island, probably are safe.

Those aboard the Tahoma were obliged to use the vessel's five whaleboats, covering between forty and fifty miles of open water, to reach Agattu Island, where they are awaiting the steamer Cordova, en route to take them off.

which should be well rewarded, considering Italy's membership in the Triple alliance, with which it refused to ally itself with Germany. Italy's motive in reward of its stand with the allies, Herzegovina would be given to Montenegro and Transylvania to Roumania.

The possible entrance of Turkey into the struggle adds much interest to the work of the mapmakers. Threats from the Balkan states that they would join Turkey in a long war against Germany and Austria gives variety to the work of the mapmakers.

(Continued on Seventh Page.)

CONTINUES TO LEAD

HIS TROOPS IN ACTION

The officer continued to state that while in this position he was shot three times in the arm, but continued to lead his troops throughout the action.

"It is a well-known fact that the soldiers of the 1st Infantry Division, on August 24 early in the morning we received orders to occupy a low hill at the edge of a track covered with brushwood. Forming part of the reserve, we were expected to remain under cover

Delayed reports giving intimate details of the occupation of Amursar were also in the minority. The Chronicle confirms the foregoing heavy artillery was placed on the German-made platforms selected some years ago to be substituted for factorless never to be completed.

(Continued on Seventh Page.) (Continued on Seventh Page.)